Creations. Eng.: Bn. Brooke, 1621. Gt. Br.: Earl Brooke, 1746; E. of Warwick, 1759.—The Rt. Hon. Sir Fulke Greville, a Kt. of the Bath and Chancellor of the Exchequer, was created 1st Bn. Brooke; he was descended on the female side from the brother of Wm. de Beauchamp, 10th Earl of Warwick (died 1298) in the original line. The 2nd Bn. was a General in the Parliamentary Army at Edgehill and in the Siege of Lichfield, during the latter of which he was killed by a musket-ball. The 4th Bn. was one of the Commissioners who invited Charles II. to return. The 8th Bn. was promoted to be Earl Brooke; and later, when a pre-existing Earldom of Warwick had become extinct, that title was added to his previous one. There had been Earls of Warwick from the time of William II., and the extinctions, forfeitures, and beheadings which have followed them, make the title a rival in tragedy with the Norfolk Dukedom. These concomitants, however, have been happily absent from the present line of descent. The 13th Earl of the original line (brother-in-law of the famous "king-maker," who in 1450 was created Earl for life) was promoted to be Duke of Warwick and crowned "King of the Isle of Wight" by Henry VI.'s own hand. These latter honours went no further than himself, and his sister's husband, who received the Earldom by a fresh creation, was slain at Barnet in 1471.

Edward IV.'s brother, the Duke of Clarence, was the next recipient of the title, but he was attainted and murdered, his three successors being all beheaded. The second of the three who thus suffered was Margaret, Countess of Salisbury and Warwick; the third, who was previously Visc. L'Isle, was created Duke of Northumberland two years before his execution. His son was restored to the Earldom, but died childless in 1589, when the title remained extinct till 1628. A new series of eight Earls now followed, and upon the lapsing of their line in 1759 that of the present Earl succeeded as stated above. "Earl Brooke," being the older, is the leading title upon the Roll.

Creations. Irel.: Bn. La Poer, 1375 by writ; a Bt. 1665; Visc. Tyrone and Bn. Beresford, 1720; E. of Tyrone, 1746; M. of Waterford, 1789. Gt. Br.: Bn. Tyrone, 1786.—'Burke' gives us the precise date of creation of the original Barony, but does not give the name of its first holder, so that it appears doubtful whether he is satisfied of its existence; Bn. le Power, however (a title under attainder from about 1700, and the heir to which is E. de P. de la Poer), he gives us as a descendant of Robt. de Poher, Knight Marshal and Joint Governor of Ireland in 1179. The 6th Bn. was in 1672 created Earl of Tyrone and Visc. Decies, but these titles expired with the 3rd Earl. The daughter of this last, however, who was allowed the Barony of La Poer in fee, married Sir Marcus Beresford, 4th Bt., and to him were accorded the Viscty. of Tyrone and subsequently a renewal of the lapsed Earldom. The 2nd Earl was elevated to the Marquessate and created Bn. Tyrone of Gt. Britain, whilst on the death of his mother he inherited also the Barony of La Poer—the only Irish Peerage besides the Massereene Viscty. which is open to female succession. The 4th Marq. was in holy orders, and the 5th, who had represented Co. Waterford in Parliament, became its Lieutenant, a K.P., and Master of the Buckhounds: the 6th, also a K.P., was accidentally drowned.

CREATIONS. U.K.: Visc. Wellington and Bn. Douro, 1809; Marq. and Earl of Wellington, 1812; D. of Wellington and Marq. Douro, 1814. Irel.: Bn. Mornington, 1746; E. of Mornington and Visc. Wellesley, 1760. Nethds.: Prince of Waterloo, 1815. Spain: Duque de Ciudad Rodrigo and a Grandee of the 1st Class, 1812. Portugal: Conde do Vimeiro, 1811; Duque da Victoria (commonly spelt Vittoria, but the town is in Spain, where tt is never used), and Marquez de Torres Vedras, 1812.—Of the deeds of the great Duke of Wellington, the "hero of a hundred fights," this book is called upon to chronicle but the slightest summary. He sat in the Irish Parliament in 1790 as Member for Trim, but from 1794 to 1815 his career was all but wholly a military one. His first great battle was that of Assaye (1803) in the Nizam's dominions; and after it came the long series of the Peninsular War—Vimieira, Talavera, Busaco, Fuentes d' Onoro, Ciudad Rodrigo, Badajoz, Salamanca, and Vitoria (these in 1808-13), followed by Orthez and Toulouse in France (1814), and then Quatre Bras and Waterloo. From Jan. 1828 for not quite three years he was Prime Minister. He died in 1852 at the age of 83. All the above honours of U.K. and the Continent were accorded to him personally. His grandfather, the 1st Bn. Mornington (Irish Peerage), was Richd. Colley, who assumed a cousin's surname of Wesley (the celebrated Rev. Jno. Wesley was a relative) and afterwards changed it to Wellesley. The 2nd Bn. obtained the Earldom of Mornington, and his 3rd son was the 1st Duke. The two elder sons were respectively Richard, 2nd Earl, created Marq. Wellesley in Ireland, who was Governor-General of India, but died childless; and William, 3rd Earl, created Bn. Maryborough—both titles passing to his son and grandson, but that of Maryborough lapsing on the death of this last in 1863, when the Mornington titles and the Wellesley Viscty. went to the 2nd Duke.

Wemyss, 1821.—Sir Jno. Wemyss, 1st Bt. (a title which expired with his son), was created 1st Ld. and Earl: he sided with the Parliament in the Civil War. The 2nd Peer obtained a new patent giving remainder of his Earldom and Lordship to his daughter and her heirs male. The heir of the Earl 5th in line was attainted for taking part in the rebellion of 1745, so that the titles remained dormant from his father's death till his own (1756-87), when, as he left no issue, his brother succeeded as untouched by the attainder. ('Burke,' however, singularly calls the attainted successor "6th Earl de jure," thus making the present Peer the 11th; 'Debrett,' on the other hand, omitting the Ass. in the numbering, styles him only the 8th.) The latter's grandson, the 9th Earl, inherited also the Earldom of March, first bestowed on a son of the 1st Duke of Queensberry, the Hon. W. Douglas, whose sister had married the 4th Earl of Wemyss. The 7th Earl was likewise the recipient of the U.K. Barony. Surname conventionally Charteris only: this had been assumed in 1771 by the 6th Earl; Douglas appears to have been added by the 7th on his accession to the March Earldom with the landed estate of his great great grandmother Lady Anne Douglas.

Neville Stephen Lytton, son of 1st E. of Lytton. Res., Crabbet Park, Three Bridges, Crawley, Sussex.

CREATION. Eng.: Bn. Wentworth, 1529 by writ.—Sir Thomas Wentworth (Kt.) was granted the title of Bn. Wentworth. The 2nd Bn., the last English Governor of Calais, was made a P.C. and a Kt. Banneret. The 4th Bn. was created Earl of Cleveland, but that title went no further. Two granddaughters followed as holders of that Barony, and in their line of successors we find the further extinct titles of Visc. Wentworth and Bn. Lovelace. The Wentworth Barony itself in 1815 fell into abeyance between the deceased Baron's sister Judith (who by marriage had become Lady Milbanke) and his nephew Lord Scarsdale; but this condition was terminated on the death of Lord Scarsdale in 1856, by the succession of Anna Isabella, daughter of Lady Milbanke and then widow of Lord Byron (whose surname was Noel-Byron). Her only child, the Hon. Augusta Ada Noel-Byron, mar. as his 1st wife 8th Bn. King, crea. 1st E. of Lovelace, and the Wentworth Bny., after being held by their two sons, eventually devolved upon the only child of the 2nd E. as Bness. 14th in line in 1906, thence passing to the late (15th) Bnss. (Further particulars under "Lovelace.")

Galway.

Creations. Irel.: Bn. of Delvin, perhaps 1389 by writ; E. of Westmeath, 1621.—The name of Gilbert de Nugent is given as that of the 1st Bn. by tenure. The title then passed by marriage to the FitzJohn family, but came back by the same process to Sir Wm. Nugent. In concert with the Earl of Kildare the 12th Bn. was engaged in hostilities with the native Chiefs, by one of whom, O'Connor, he was treacherously made a prisoner and kept long in confinement. The 14th Bn. was commissioned by the Crown to extirpate the O'Mores, but was sent prisoner to London in 1580 on suspicion of holding treasonable correspondence with the Leinster rebels; having, however, established his innocence, he returned to Ireland, and Elizabeth ordered him several grants of forfeited land, which the troubles of the country prevented his receiving. His son, the 15th Bn., was raised to the Earldom. The 4th Earl was outlawed for having fought for James II., but the sentence was afterwards remitted. The 6th Earl conformed to the Protestant Church. The 8th was in 1822 created a Marquess, but he left no son and that title lapsed in 1877, whilst the Earldom passed to a cousin, an ancestor of whom had been created Lord Riversdon by James II. after abdication — the title consequently being never admitted, though it continued to be used till its holder became 9th Earl. The 10th served on the Continent.

Creations. Eng.: Bn. St. John of Basing, 1539; E. of Wiltshire, 1550; M. of Winchester, 1551.—Sir Wm. Paulet, K.G., was the recipient of these three creations. He was a confidant of Henry VIII. and held the office of Lord Treasurer of England through the changes of the three succeeding reigns; and on being once asked how he had contrived to stand through them all, he replied, "By being a willow, not an oak." The 3rd Peer was given to literature and writing poetry. The 5th sacrificed all his property through supporting Charles I. in the Civil War, his mansion at Basing being burnt to the ground after a siege. The 6th Marq. was made Duke of Bolton, and that title ran through six in the line. The 3rd Duke (8th Marq.) involved himself with the actress Lavinia Bestwick, and had three sons by her previously to the death of his 1st wife. As he left no other issue, though he eventually married the actress, his titles went to his brother; but on the death of the 6th Duke, who was an Admiral of the White, the Dukedom expired and the Marquessate passed to a descendant of the 5th holder of that title. The 13th Marq. in his closing years assumed the additional name of Burroughs, but this appears to have been for himself alone. His grandson the 15th Peer was a Major in the Coldstream Guards and was killed at Magersfontein in December 1899.

The eldest son succeeded his father in the Baronetcy, but he predeceased his mother, so that his next brother became her successor in the Peerage. Sir Heneage Finch (Kt.), son of the 3rd brother, having been Attorney-General and Lord Keeper of the Great Seal, was separately created a Bt. and raised to the Peerage as Bn. Finch, and subsequently appointed Lord Chancellor with the title of Earl of Nottingham. His son, the 2nd Earl, succeeded as 7th Earl of Winchilsea. Previously hereto the 3rd Earl of Winchilsea (distinguished by having 27 children), who was high in favour with the 2nd Charles and James (prevailing upon the latter to return to London on his first attempted flight), was made Bn. FitzHerbert, a title that expired with the 5th Earl. His successor, named above as having united the two Earldoms, was twice Secretary of State under William, Anne, and George I.

The 4th Peer was engaged in the French wars of Richard II. and Henry IV. On the death of the 11th Bn. in 1625 the title fell into abeyance, and so continued till 1815. The 5th Bn. had married the Bnss. St. Maur, 7th in line; but the abeyance affected both titles, and in the latter case has never been terminated. A second, but brief, abeyance of the Zouche line occurred in 1825, and the daughter in whose favour it was determined altered her title to De la Zouche. Her son the 14th Bn. did not continue this form, and the title stands on the Roll as "Zouche of Haryngworth."

INDEX TO THE SEATS AND RESIDENCES
CITED IN THE FOREGOING DIRECTORY.

 The design of this Index, the comprehensiveness of which we have been compelled somewhat to limit, is to furnish a ready means of reference to the occupant of every address in the Directory within the British Isles, provided it bears a distinctive name, is non-official in character, and held by a person not lower in rank than a Knight or the son or daughter of a Baron. The only exceptions are those of unsubstantiated claimants, or of ladies whose former claims to titles have been forfeited by re-marriage. Many residences will doubtless be merely villas or even houses in a terrace distinguished by some special name; but no line of exclusion can possibly be drawn, nor is it called for in a list which is not restricted to "seats." On the other hand there are almost certainly a large number of villages and hamlets cited in the form of residences; but this also is unavoidable (except by the putting of questions which would often be thought offensive) in view of the large number of actual seats which are designated by apparently local names without the addition of the word "House," "Hall," or "Park." Yet again, there are a large number of residences which are appended to more than one name in the DIRECTORY; and in these cases, if relationship cannot be traced, it is presumable that one name represents the occupant and the other the owner. We have done our best to make the distinction clear, or at any rate to supply the name of the occupant.

The greatest pains have been taken to supply to every address the far too frequently omitted post-town, a long dash being substituted when the Editor's efforts for its discovery have been without avail. More complete addresses will very often be found under the names in the Directory, but they are never consciously so abridged as to entail extra labour on the Post Office. It should be noted in the case of such abridgments as "Glos.," "Worc.," "Leic.," that they invariably denote the county and not the county town—no town whatever being contracted if it can possibly be confused with the county. "Durham" without "Co." means the city of Durham, and similarly in numerous Irish examples.

At the cost of much additional space, every address is now given in the style prescribed under our "Modes of Addressing Persons of Title;" many contractions, however, will naturally be expanded in copying. The name and style of the wife is appended in those numerous instances in which the husband does not hold a title which would on his own account have given him a place in this work.

The rule observed in alphabetising has been to treat the entire name of the residence as one word (the parenthesised "The," coming out of its true position, can only be ignored): this course is unavoidable on account of the vast number of instances in which a compound designation is spelt by some in a single word and by others in two.

HOSPITALS AND CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

THE purest of pleasures and the greatest of gratifications elude those who seek to enjoy them by gaining, and are only to be found in giving. If he who gives quickly gives twice, he gives more than twice who gives with discretion, and to all who would give discreetly it is of importance to possess abbreviated particulars of the claims, needs and special purposes of existing Charities, Hospitals and Benevolent Institutions. The objects of these many organisations differ, but in principle they are identical, however they may vary in their systems and methods, and in the range and character of their administration. For instance, of the Institutions whose direct concern is with Health—the most valuable asset alike of the individual and the nation—the exclusive endeavour of some is to exemplify the soundness of the argument that "prevention is better than cure"; while others, curing where cure is possible, extend their resources to the alleviation of suffering in incurable cases, thus shouldering a far heavier burden. A simple list of the names of the Principal Charities would in itself show how comprehensive is the scope of their beneficent work.

Of the organisations devoted to the help, relief and welfare of the Young, one Orphanage, undenominational and unendowed, receives children from the tender age of three months; another combines with the responsibilities of an Orphanage the activities of a Working School; another Orphan School provides for the maintenance, education and clothing of respectably connected but poor children; Deaf and Dumb little ones are similarly cared and provided for; for children of parents convicted of crime, and children in danger of evil associations, Village Homes are conducted on the group system, under foster-mothers. There are Orphan Homes from which none is excluded by any consideration of class or creed—to which no destitute child is ever refused admission. The purpose of one Boys' Home is to train necessitous lads for the Army, Navy and Mercantile Marine, and for various civilian occupations at Home and in the British Dominions. For the preparation for sea of boys of good character a Training Ship is kept in commission on which destitute candidates are received free, £18 a year being paid for those whose friends can afford it. Much child-welfare work is carried out by Hospitals—in East London, in South London, and in West London, a fourth receiving from anywhere little patients suffering from any form of Hip Disease, while for the protection of children from cruel usage the officers and agents of a Society are active all over the Kingdom.

All classes of Women and Girls are dealt with by an Association of democratic constitution for mutual help, sympathy and prayer. Another class is reached by a Society for the reclamation of young fallen women, an object also aimed at by a mission that provides Maternity Rescue Homes. Besides General Hospitals for Women, some Lying-in Hospitals receive married women as well as single women with their first child. At a Hospital for Invalid Gentlewomen, medical and surgical treatment is gratuitous, moderate charges being made for board and lodging.

The General Hospitals are practically all-comprehensive in their scope. They constitute the training schools for the future healers of humanity, and their claim upon the public for support is of the strongest. They offer a varied selection to any one willing to name a Cot at a cost of £500 or a Bed for £1,000—the finest of all memorials. Supplementing the work of the Hospitals, Convalescent Homes and Institutions lighten the lot of the Incurable, and one Institution exists for the noble purpose of opening its doors to the dying.

Separate Hospitals treat cases of Consumption and Chest Diseases, Skin Diseases, Cancer, Paralysis and Epilepsy, Diseases and Complaints of the Eye, Ear and Throat, Venereal Diseases (combined with reclamation work), etc. Facilities furnished by a Hospital Society for wounded sick and injured Seamen are available for sailors of all nationalities. Akin to that of the Hospitals is the work of Societies that supply the needy with trusses and other surgical aids and necessities.

HOSPITALS AND CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

Among Charitable Agencies is one for granting pensions to the Indigent Blind; the Deaf and Dumb, of whom there are 4,000 in London alone, are specially cared for to the utmost extent of its funds by an Institution devoted to those so afflicted; the benevolence of another is exercised for the relief of distressed members (of sixty years and over) of the upper and middle classes. Aged Farmers and their dependents, necessitous Clergymen and their widows and children, Lay Church Workers men and women are the separate care of several Corporations, one of which gives immediate assistance to Clergymen, their widows and orphan daughters, in all parts of the Empire. Complementing other relief an Association makes extra grants to London local committees in poor parishes through the local clergy and district visitors. One East London Fund supports 200 paid workers and the building of Churches and Parish Halls. Shipwrecked Sailors rescued by one Institution are looked after by another, and the special wants of Fishermen are also attended to.

Animals generally, and animals of particular species, are under the care of special Associations, and Homes exist for particular animals, while the sole object of some Societies is to wage war against Vivisection.

Missions are active for the spiritual and temporal good of both British and Foreign Mariners, the neglected denizens of slumland, and other classes. There are several "Armies" and Associations whose services are so extensive that each one might aptly be described as a "Spiritual Army Service Corps."

The foregoing is an indication of the channels into which the living streams of charity and benevolence may be directed. But they do not arise from any inexhaustible fountain-head, and their flow can only be continued as long as tributary waters feed them. Recent seasons have been exceptionally dry. In 1916 the 1,953 Charities enumerated in Burdett's "Hospitals and Charities" received less than £15,000,000 (subscriptions and donations, income from invested funds, receipts from patients, and contributions for general purposes, £12,249,000; legacies, £1,548,000; donations to building funds, etc., £568,000). The War has decreased receipts and has greatly increased expenditure, sending up the costs of administration, of food, instruments and stores, and upsetting the estimates and calculations of former years. Financial stability can only be arrived at by a good measure of Annual Subscriptions. Existing Subscribers are urged to make bequests, wherever possible, to prevent any Institution suffering from the stoppage of their support. With the ending of the Great War, during which so many emergency Funds diverted the generosity of the benevolent and philanthropic into temporary channels, the established Charities and Hospitals of Great Britain appeal for increased help in this time of their special need.
